11TH ANNUAL PERIOPERATIVE MEDICINE SUMMIT

February 25-27, 2016 // Westin Kierland Resort & Spa in Scottsdale, AZ // PeriopMedicine.org

OVERVIEW

The goal of this three-day summit is to enable clinicians who are actively engaged in perioperative medical care to incorporate the latest findings from clinical research and recommendations from evidence-based guidelines into their practices so that they can improve the quality and safety of their medical care.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Internists, hospitalists, family practitioners, anesthesiologists, physician assistants, surgeons, certified nurse anesthetists, nurse practitioners and allied health professionals engaged in management of the perioperative patient.

SELECTED OBJECTIVES

As a result of participating in this activity, participants will be able to:

- » Identify the changes occurring in the healthcare environment as a result of reform
- » Review recent guidelines regarding preoperative evaluation prior to noncardiac surgery
- » Describe aspects of anesthesia that are essential for medical providers
- » Apply available evidence as perioperative cardiovascular risk reduction strategies
- » Identify the specific challenges that geriatric patients face when undergoing surgery
- » Outline implementation strategies for clinicians wanting to establish enhanced recovery at their home institutions
- » Identify the various phases of the Perioperative Care Continuum and the optimal design of the Perioperative Home

ACCREDITATION

Rush University Medical Center is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians. Rush University (OH-390, 8/25/2014) is an approved provider of continuing education by the Ohio Nurses Association (OBN-001-91), an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

CREDIT DESIGNATION

Physicians Rush University Medical Center designates this live activity for a maximum of 18.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. Nurses Rush University designates this live activity for 18.25 Continuing Education credit(s).

DISCLOSURE AND CONFLICT OF INTEREST RESOLUTION

All conflicts of interest of any individual(s) in a position to control the content of this CME activity will be identified and resolved prior to this educational activity being provided. Disclosure about provider and faculty relationships, or the lack thereof, will be provided to learners.

SERVICES FOR THE DISABLED

Please contact the Division of CME prior to February 1, 2016 should you have any special needs that may require additional assistance. A conference staff member will contact you to discuss these special requirements.

REGISTRATION CANCELLATION POLICY

Refunds will be made only if written notice of cancellation is received prior to February 3, 2016. A $100 fee is charged for all refunds. After this date, no refunds will be made. In cases where a course is canceled due to insufficient registrations, a full tuition refund will be made.

All reservations should be received by the hotel no later than February 3, 2016. All individual reservations must be accompanied by a first night room deposit or guaranteed with a major credit card. Hotel will not hold any reservations unless secured by one of the above methods.

PERIOPERATIVE MEDICINE SUMMIT AND THE SOCIETY FOR PERIOPERATIVE ASSESSMENT AND QUALITY IMPROVEMENT (SPAQI): ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Submission Site Information and Deadline

You will be able to submit your abstract on the submission site of PeriopMedicine.org until the deadline of January 4, 2016 11:30pm EST. No abstracts will be accepted after the deadline. You will be informed by email of your acceptance by January 13, 2016. The abstract size is limited to 3,000 characters including spaces.

Technical support can be reached by phone at (612) 483-2606, Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 6:00 PM Eastern Standard Time (US), or by emailing Andy Grant at andy@voicehive.com.

ELIGIBILITY

Perioperative Medicine Summit is accepting abstract submissions in three categories:

- Research in Perioperative Medicine
- Innovations in Perioperative Medicine
- Perioperative Clinical Vignettes

The three best research abstracts will be selected for an oral presentation. All other abstracts will be displayed in a poster session. Abstracts are eligible for submission if they have not been published in a peer-reviewed journal.

Only the first author will receive email communications regarding the abstract, and it is his/her responsibility to communicate any notifications with co-authors, to accept or decline the invitation to present the abstract, if applicable, and to withdraw the abstract, if applicable.

ABSTRACT CATEGORIES AND GUIDELINES

Research in Perioperative Medicine

Submissions can report clinical research, basic science research, or a systematic review of a clinical problem in perioperative medicine. Research abstracts concerned with the highlighted topic areas above, as well as efficiency, cost, or method of health care delivery methods and medical decision-making are also encouraged.

Abstracts submitted for the research category should adhere to the following headings:

- » Background
- » Methods
- » Results
- » Conclusions (Do not use phrases such as "The results will be discussed.")

Innovations in Perioperative Medicine

Authors who wish to describe an innovative program in perioperative medicine are encouraged to submit to this category. Innovations will primarily be descriptive, but they may also include preliminary data. A more rigorous evaluation of an innovative program should be submitted as a research abstract rather than as an innovation. For example, an innovation may describe a novel strategy for disseminating practice guidelines, whereas a research abstract may analyze its impact on outcomes. Please note that all innovation abstract submissions must report on an activity that has already been piloted or fully implemented in the healthcare setting. Ideas for innovations that are being planned but have not yet been implemented will not be reviewed. Any type of innovation may be submitted, including (but not limited to) critical pathway development and dissemination, medical education, faculty development, handheld computers, computerized medical records, billing and collections, patient safety interventions, communications, and teamwork with other care team members. For example, a description of a unique patient safety issue, the associated interventions, and root cause analysis resulting in systems-based modifications would be an innovation of interest to others in the field of perioperative medicine.

Abstracts submitted for the innovations category should adhere to these headings:

- » Background
- » Purpose
- » Description
- » Conclusions

Perioperative Clinical Vignettes

A clinical vignette is a report of one or more cases that illustrate a new disease entity or a prominent or unusual clinical feature of an established disease, highlights an area of clinical controversy in perioperative medicine, or illustrates a unique patient safety issue. It may include a summary of pertinent patient history, physical findings, laboratory data, or management description. It should be clear from the discussion portion of the abstract why the vignette is most appropriate for perioperative medicine. Clinical vignettes will be judged on originality, organization, writing ability, and relevance to perioperative medicine.

Abstracts submitted for the clinical vignette category should adhere to these headings:

- » Case presentation
- » Discussion
- » Conclusions

Abstract Length

The abstract limit is 3,000 characters including spaces.

Tables and Graphics

Please keep in mind that each table and graph will count as 200 characters and will contribute to the total character count. No more than 2 tables or graphics will be accepted.

» A graphic is to be submitted using either .jpg, .jpeg, or .gif format.

» A graphic may appear large on screen, but will be adapted for publication. Graphics that are poor resolution or unclear may be removed from abstracts that are accepted for publication.

Abbreviations, Symbols, and Nomenclature

Usage should conform as closely as possible to that recommended in the CBE Style Manual (6th edition, 1994), published by the Council of Biology Editors and available from CBE Secretariat, 9650 Rockville Pike, Bethesda, MD, 20814. Nonstandard abbreviations must be kept to a minimum and must be explained when used. Generic names of drugs are preferred; a proprietary name may be given only with the first use of the generic name.

Units of Measurement

Metric (SI), including those for height, length, mass (weight), and body temperature should be used. Measurements for substances of known, pure composition should be in millimoles/milliliter or millimoles/liter. For mixtures of substances where exact composition is not known, use grams/liter.

IRB or Other Research Approval

If human or animal species were exposed to risks not required by their medical needs during the study included in the abstract, the author affirms that the study was approved by an appropriate committee. If no such committee was available and informed consent was needed, the author affirms that approval was obtained in accordance with the principles set forth in The Institutional Guide to DHEW Policy on Protection of Human Subjects and the Guide for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals, published by the NIH.

Finalizing Your Abstract

Authors may return to the online system to edit abstracts, revise information, correct typographical errors, tables, and graphics, or to delete a submission at any time before the submission deadline. After this time, the system will be closed, and abstracts will be forwarded for the reviewing process. An author may not revise or resubmit an abstract in order to make changes or corrections after this deadline. The presenter will be expected to register for the meeting.

STATEMENTS OF DISCLOSURE

Conflict of Interest Policy

The Perioperative Medicine Summit and SPAQI promote improved patient care, teaching, and research in the field of perioperative medicine. We strive to ensure that these goals are met throughout our educational activities. All authors submitting abstracts are required to disclose any relationships with pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, or other organizations that could represent potential conflicts in their presentation. The submitting author is responsible for providing disclosure information for all co-authors. This requirement applies to currently existing relationships or relationships within the past year that relate to the abstract entry. The principal intent of this disclosure is not to prevent authors with a potential conflict from submitting an abstract or presenting their work. Rather, disclosure information will assist the abstract committee members in the review process.

Permissions

The author submitting this abstract acknowledges that he/she and all coauthors have seen and agree with the following: the content of the abstract responsibility for clinical trial data (if applicable) that the abstract has not been published in a peer-reviewed journal prior to submission. The disclosures are of financial interest in, or support from, or equity positions in, manufacturers of drugs, services, or products mentioned in the abstract and trial registry information. Finally, all authors and co-authors acknowledge understanding that plagiarism will not be tolerated and will result in withdrawal of the abstract and a thorough investigation that could result in prohibition from participation.
